Fall Seminars Abroad Awards

UC Davis Study Abroad is pleased to announce study abroad awards for participants in Fall Seminars Abroad 2020 programs.

Eligibility: The following students are eligible to apply: UC Davis Seminars Abroad programs in Chile & Peru, Poland, and Italy. You must already be enrolled in a 2020 program by the submission deadline; students with incomplete applications will not be considered. You do not have to be eligible for financial aid in order to receive an award.

Responsibility: If you receive an award you must complete a project highlighting your study abroad experience (projects may be shared, in print and/or online, with the UC Davis Study Abroad community—e.g. award donors, faculty, staff). There are three Project Tracks available to choose from: (1) Article Writing/Blogging, (2) Photo Journalism, or (3) Design your own project. Full details will be provided when awards recipients are announced.

To Apply: Applications open on April 29, 2020. Please follow these steps: (1) Log into your Study Abroad account, (2) Click “Search Scholarships” tab, (3) Click “Apply Now”, (4) Follow the online instructions and submit a response to the first prompt:

1) How the specific study abroad program you have chosen is related to your academic, personal, or professional goals (500 word limit; please remember to include a title).

Additionally, some of the Study Abroad Awards will include financial need as a criteria (others will not):

(2) For priority consideration, students should have a current FAFSA or CA Dream Act application complete.

Award amounts usually range from $500-$1,000 per student.

Deadline: Tuesday, May 19, 2020

Late applications will not be accepted

Study Abroad Award recipients will be announced via email by Wednesday June 10, 2020.

For information about additional scholarship and funding opportunities:

globallearning.ucdavis.edu/resources/funding/study-abroad-away